Palmer Gold Coast

Carved out of 65 hectares of native woodlands, with fairways lined by towering gum trees, this unique layout is unlike any resort course on the Gold Coast. This 6078 metre, par 71 championship golf course was designed by the Marsh/Watson team and has developed the reputation as one of Queensland's best loved resort courses.

The clubhouse offers alfresco dining on the terrace overlooking one of Australia's finest finishing holes. The Fairway and Lakeview function rooms are the perfect venues to host your corporate functions.

Palmer Colonial

Palmer Colonial is a haven of tranquility, recognized not only for its challenging golf course, but for the myriad of flora and fauna that inhabit its waterways.

A farmland once home to cows and bush, the 6,424 metre, par 72 championship resort layout meanders its way through 39 hectares of towering eucalyptus, picturesque lakes and serene waterways.

Off the course, the stunning Queenslander style clubhouse welcomes both golfers and visitors alike. Verandahs surround the building providing exquisite panoramic views inside, the Tasmanian oak parquetry and rich tones of the wood paneled walls provides an unquestionably pleasurable experience for all golfers and guests.
